

ALLERGY IN CLINICAL CARE

A health care event you will not want to miss!

FRIDAY EVENING, NOVEMBER 5

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 6

Canadian Society of Allergy and Clinical Immunology
Annual Scientific Meeting

2010

VICTORIA CONFERENCE CENTRE
BRITISH COLUMBIA

Welcome!

Victoria ... Rendez-vous!

You are invited to attend an educational event designed for health care professionals involved in the management of patients with allergic disorders and asthma. Well known Canadian allergists will share their expertise in these areas. If you are interested in increasing your clinical knowledge and sharpening your assessment skills, this course is for you! This will be held in conjunction with the CSACI Annual Scientific Meeting.

OBJECTIVES

- To prepare the health care professional engaged in asthma management with the necessary clinical knowledge to recognize allergic disease
- To learn safe, effective management options for allergic conditions
- To understand the complex interplay between allergy and asthma
- Understand the educational needs of the allergic patient
- To increase accessibility of reliable, evidence-based allergy education to the public

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5

Opening Remarks by Dr. Harold Kim

1700 to 1800

SPEAKER: Dr. Greg Rex

Topic: Allergy Testing – the Underbelly of Alternative Medicine Lecture

Participants will gain insight into the world of naturopathic medicine. What are patients being told?
